General regulations

Rules & Regulations: The WPA rules and regulations will apply for all matters not contradicted by the above or announced during the player's meeting. Ultimately, all athletes are themselves responsible for knowing the rules and regulations, and therefore have no recourse if informed wrongly by tournament officials.

The Tournament Director has the right, at his discretion, to change the format, dress code, time schedule and all other related matters if the situation calls for changes.

All consents under the "Performers Rights Protection Acts 1958 to 1972" or under similar legislation in other countries of the world, in connection with performance of the Athlete and the exploitation of the Athlete's performance by any means and in all media including (but not by way of limitation) all forms of television broadcast, internet and video exploitation, are hereby granted and assigned by the Athlete to the NBC.

The Athlete acknowledges to the NBC that the entire copyright throughout the world in any film and/or video or other recordings of the Athlete taken or made during the 2018 Nordic Pool Championship shall belong to the NBC. The Athlete warrants to the NBC that he/she is able to assign all such rights and give such acknowledgements as written in the above.

The Athlete agrees to carry out any reasonable request by the NBC and its local host during the event, to assist in hospitality or promotion for the benefit of the event.

The Athlete hereby waves any rights of recovery he/she may have against the NBC for personal injury or damage to property whilst participating in the event. Personal insurance is the responsibility of the Athlete.

NBC, its local host or sponsors cannot be held liable for any articles of value left anywhere in the venue at any time.
